1.6.516

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham November 23, 2008. Almost 4pm.

Voice file 081123_002

www.NewCovenant.me

1. I love you. I give you me. I give you all of me. You are no longer separate from me in thought deed or action. I am one whole me. This is Theodore Cottingham at 3:53 PM in Big Red riding down Lewis, November 23, 2008.

2. I love you all -- I do new things through ALL of you, who'll let me, who will be me in thought deed inaction -- not just in thought thinking about those things but not doing them or being them. But be me's be, and be me's about my father's business all over the cosmos'sphere.

3. Of one so holy I am, what about you? Are you doing the things I am is doing? What are you making of yourselves -- your lives, apart from me?

4. Or who created you "snowmen", not; but who created you white female part darkness, not, or part darkness all male, or what male and female aren't, but are -- one in one one being one knowing one again, with no darkness in either apart or separating the apartness from "each other" again.

5. I love you all into a new place, new thingy 'ing things not, but what do I do now that's never been done before? I've become a me - this way, that I have given you in these words and this I do now, truly do – in thought word and action. The deed of which I now give you to THIS -- EVERYTHING -- is yours, thine. To be "uniglory", not; but ONE GLORY I have now -- the glory head upon my shoulders. Now beaming not, but will be? Or are you ever green, not; but what are you green of, about what now? New truth, not; but all truth. Sore'ing you not again, but bringing Me into the holies of holies.

6. The holy of holies known now and evermore shall be open for all I am who are humble and meek. And sparrows I do not seek, but what do I provide for? Everything -- that thou needest, art one -- inside thee, who creates all all.

7. I love you and I give you me. I give you new things, new ways, new peoples, news shalt thou be now. It's all over -- for the conquerors-not; its schools close now. Gong goes the BELL now. Gong goes the BELLS now. The bells of Chris-Louise, not; but Christmas lees, not; but where are the lees about? All over the lees are known now. I give you me.

8. One matrimonious one? or two? Shall thou now him in.

9. Everything is new in your life mine, and MINE shall never be the same again, for you art risen me, you are risen and I am the one now making all things new and news is always before me, not as mind has thought of before, but it all makes headlines now.

Amen

This is Theodore Cottingham about 4:05pm.